

TRINITY COLLEGE
MCMXIV-MCMXVIII

Iuxta fidem defuncti sunt omnes isti non acceptis repromissionibus sed a longe [eas] aspicientes et salutantes et confitententes quia peregrini et hospites sunt super terram.

(The Vulgate has 'supra terram', and includes the 'eas' which is missing from the inscription.)

These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

(Hebrews 11: 13)

Lieutenant-Commander, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, Commanding "D" Company, Benbow Battalion. Taken prisoner by the Germans Oct. 9 after the Antwerp operations and executed by them, Oct. 11, 1914.

ADM/137/4819 letter from Commodore Henderson 15/2/18 states evidence from Lieutenant-Commander F.C. Grover RNVR Hawke Battalion: "Poor Hanson was shot by the Germans on the 10th October 1914. He had struggled with a sentry who was about to fire on one of our own men trying to escape after we were taken prisoner on the night of the 9th, & under German Military Code such an act can be punished with death. I tried to get the sentence mitigated, & so did the Commandant of the troops guarding us, for it was evident that Hanson was overwrought by the fatigues of the previous days. The matter was referred to the highest authority; at that time, General von der Goltz was Military Governor of Belgium, but it was of no avail, & Hanson was shot at midday, & is buried by the Church at Exaerde [Belgium]." (FWR)

"Whilst being marched along in the dark and in a state of delirium, he imagined that he saw British soldiers approaching. He called out to the visionary troops not to come near, as the Germans were there. For this he was shot." Buried in Dendermonde Communal Cemetery, Oost-Vlaanderen, Belgium. (*Marlborough Coll. Prior-Wandesforde, Christopher Butler

Born Dec. 15th 1896 at Castlecomer, County Kilkenny. Son of Captain Richard Henry and Florence Prior-Wandesforde, of Castlecomer House in County Kilkenny and Kirklington Hall and Hipswell Lodge, Yorkshire. Mourne Grange School. County Down, Rugby School. Adm. as pensioner at Trinity, March 1915. Gained commission to Yorkshire Regiment (Green Howards) March 31, 1915. Joined the 4th battalion in the Ypres Salient, 1915, and in early 1916 was involved in the 'Operations at the Bluff' to the south east of Ypres. Entered the Somme offensive Sept. 1916 where saw action around High Wood and Eaucourt L'Abbaye where 2nd Lt Prior-Wandesforde was wounded in action. By now promoted to Lieutenant, Prior-Wandesforde fought during the Battle of Arras in April of 1917 and in June was in the line at the Hindenburg Support. On June 27th the battalion came under a gas attack and although badly affected himself, Prior-Wandesforde worked for two hours in rescuing others from a gassed dugout. The extra effort involved in his actions caused the gas to penetrate his system and he died from the effects later in the day June 27, 1917 aged 20 in No 49 Casualty Clearing Station. After his death his captain wrote, "His was one of the sunniest natures I have ever met and no danger or difficulty seemed to damp his spirits for more than a few minutes. He was the very embodiment of charity and I have never heard him say an unkind word of anybody. After he was gassed he spent the greater part of two hours looking after his men and getting them out of danger". Buried in Achiet-le-Grand Communal Cemetery Extension, France.
